

Biomedical and socio-cultural aspects in transplantation. Facts and myths on sex and gender

Satellite Meeting to the Final IFB-Tx Symposium
March 7-8, 2018 Hannover

Save the date

Invited Speakers

Birgit Babitsch, Osnabrück University, Germany
Frans Claas, Leiden University, Netherlands
Bethany Foster, Montreal Children's Hospital, Canada
Siegfried Geyer, Hannover Medical School, Germany
David Gjertson, UCLA, USA
Marc Grear, Hannover Medical School, Germany
Marion Haubitz, Fulda General Hospital, Germany
Anette Melk, Hannover Medical School, Germany
Undine Samuel, Eurotransplant Leiden, Netherlands
Holger Schünemann, McMaster University, Canada
Lori West, University of Alberta, Canada
Germaine Wong, UNSW, Sydney, Australia

Registration Fee: 60 € (reduced fee available, please refer to our website)

Further information and registration: www.mh-hannover.de/geschlecht-macht-wissen.html or gmw@mh-hannover.de

Topics

Epidemiological Facts on Gender/Sex in Transplantation
Organ-specific Gender Aspects
Immunology and Gender
Guidelines and Clinical Reality

Call for Abstracts

Submission of abstracts for oral and poster presentations are highly encouraged.

Please refer to the website for further details.

Deadline: January 15, 2018